

The Turkish Constitution Assured No Information Has Been Given Regarding Date General Elections House Might Have Sitting First

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(By the Associated Press)—In the still highly speculative political situation tonight, only two facts stood out as definite—that there will be almost immediately a general election and that parliamentary ratification of the Irish constitution is safely assured.

Andrew Bonar Law, who is to lead the new government which will take the place of that of David Lloyd George, in a message to an evening newspaper confirmed his intention to advise King George V. immediately dissolve parliament, and added that this fact would give ample time to deal with the Irish legislation. He did not indicate, however, whether the present parliament would reassemble according to schedule on November 14 to deal with the Irish question, or whether general elections would be held immediately and the Irish legislation left to the new parliament. Either plan would be practicable, the only point being that ratification of the Irish treaty must be effected before December 31st.

Mr. Lloyd George is a man of great energy and initiative. He has removed any fear of opposition from him in his new position as leader of the opposition in parliament. The Marquis of Salisbury, on behalf of the "old" Conservatives, has made a similar promise, as there is no party in the House of Commons at present to offer any hindrance to carrying out the Irish treaty into effect.

Mr. Lloyd George, who during the war with the Liberal party in two sections, has now done the same thing with the Unionist party. The result of the two original parties there are now four, with the Liberal party making the fifth. There is no longer a two party system, which for so many years during the great home rule negotiations has dominated the British parliament by throwing its seventy members to which ever side it chose. With the five original parties it is clear that no single party can form a government not aided by further alliances. It is to be expected that the whole of the election machinery and the tactics of the Unionist party belong to the rebellious Irish republicans of the present.

General Party Possible
Mr. Lloyd George is credited with intentions to create a general party. This would necessitate the creation of a new party, for the former premier has no much funds or machinery at present at his disposal.

There is no great question now before the country for the election to decide, and from the slight indication already afforded by the candidates who are in a great fighting mood, it is to be expected that the election will be a very close contest.

A Personal Question

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 20.—"We know we have one of the biggest armies in the world, and we are today the most powerful military nation," said Kafi Pasha, military governor of Thrace, speaking today of the future position of Turkey.

"We have achieved a victory which I am confident no other army could have won. We have won our full freedom and nobody can take it from us. Henceforth, Turkey will be purely Moslem and can make its own way without hindrance from the outside," he said.

STEEL PRODUCTS CO. MAY PUT UP PLANT IN NEAR FUTURE

The Western Steel Products Ltd. are contemplating putting up a modern plant in the city to replace their present plant which is situated on the riverbank. This plant has been found too small to handle the work of the growing industry and a considerable expansion is being planned.

A new site near the centre of the city is likely to be purchased by the company. An offer has been made to the city to purchase a block near the riverbank, which is likely to be accepted.

The Western Steel Products Ltd. have plans at Winnipeg and Calgary.

To be Fashionable Your New Skirt Must be of Wooly FabricIn Stripes or Checks that Flash Bright Colors

Hanging on the rack with their pleats all pressed down tight, they look quite lovely and dainty. They have a light stripe running down the middle of each pleat. Maybe there are rows of shadow stripes running down the skirt. But let them slip out on the street and the pleats part to reveal gay stripes and groups of stripes. Or where the stripes run round and round the skirt, what was a shadow stripe on top of the pleat, becomes a bold stripe inside.

Needless to say, these sudden glimpses of pattern and color are altogether delightful and novel.

Fashioned of lovely soft new woolen materials in best plaid and plain style with striped backs or belted, have very smart and distinctive colored waist bands of dark or light colors. Sizes 28 to 44. Price at $12.50.

What About the Canadian Route?

When last spring a committee of Parliament announced, after investigating the matter, that more than half the Western Canadian grain crop regularly goes to the Atlantic seaboard through the United States channels and United States ports, there was a good deal of surprise in many quarters, and not a few newspapers were busy pointing out that means must be taken to prevent this diversion of Canadian traffic from Canadian trade routes.

Apparently the diversion had not been prevented yet, nor minimized to any noticeable degree. A dispatch from Ft. William a few days ago stated that more than half the wheat leaving the head of the lakes was billed to Buffalo and other United States ports. From the same source came information that the rate for carrying grain down the lakes had risen from three cents per bushel to seven. Also that already prudent dealers forewarned that a vast amount of grain could not be got out before freeze-up and that vessels had already been chartered to store grain through the winter at eight cents per bushel.

Meantime Buffalo reports that twenty million bushels of grain are tied up there because there is not enough barges to take it through the Erie canal. Further, that the charges for transporting grain through the canal had risen from three cents per bushel to fourteen. Summarizing these items the situation seems to be that while the railways are examining the elevators at Ft. William with grain faster than it can be taken away, more than half of what is got into "bottoms" goes to United States ports and thence over United States rail or water routes to the seaboard. No complaints have come from Montreal about a shortage of traffic there, and the assumption is that the fraction of grain that is going by the Canadian route is substantially all that the facilities there can take care of. And, despite the diversion of more than half the grain trade to United States routes, the prospect of winter storage space at Ft. William being at a premium is not already there the ordinary rates are being paid for vessels in which to house grain until spring.

How the Western grain crop gets to the overseas consumer is not a matter that directly affects the men who raise it or the people of the West generally. So long as it gets there, with reasonable despatch, and at a cost for freightage that does not unduly depress the original price, the necessities of the case are met from the standpoint of the Western farmer and of those whose business interests depend upon his operations. But when the route taken by the grain is unable to accommodate it, and a stoppage in the movement occurs, or is threatened, and when the prices for carriage mount to abnormal heights, the West becomes an interested party in the question of grain routes. The unusual rates now being paid for lake carriage, for storage space in ships, and for haulage through the Erie canal, all react upon the price paid to the Western producer, and react to depress that price. Unless the speculators are "going wild", the Western farmer is getting less for his wheat than he would and should get if these charges were down to normal.

In days gone by a good deal has been heard at one time and another about the necessity of keeping Canadian trade, and especially the Western grain trade, in Canadian channels. Eleven years ago the voters of Ontario smashed a reciprocal trade arrangement that would have been of vast benefit to that province and to the West. In the belief that it would divert the annual grain rush from Western Canada into United States routes. It would seem to be just for those who were so anxious then to preserve this traffic to Canadian routes to wake up and say something. On the authority of Parliament, and of observers at the shipping points, less than half the grain from the prairies is now going to the seaboard by Canadian routes, and less than half of it goes that way year after year. The notion that the Western crop is marketed over Canadian railways and waterways is a large delusion. The bulk of it goes over United States railways, through United States waterways, and reaches the sea at United States ports. That is to say, more than half the incidental benefits that are derived from the movement of the Western Canadian crop goes to United States shipping companies, railways and harbors, and to the companies and harbor interests.

Meantime there is a Canadian city, at the end of a Canadian railway, with an ocean harbor open the year round, situated as near the middle of the wheat belt as Ft. William is, and for all the use that is being made of it as an outlet for wheat it might almost as well be in China. If Vancouver had the storage and shipping facilities of Montreal, and if those facilities were working to the limit, there would still be more wheat available for carriage to the Atlantic by Canadian routes than those routes are actually handling today. The discriminatory freight rates which keep Vancouver closed as a wheat outlet are not driving the Western wheat eastward over Canadian routes, they are driving it into United States channels; driving so much of it there that the charge for taking it through the Erie canal has risen to nearly five times the normal rate.

Under Favorable Assumptions.
A backwood settlement is to be established in new Ontario on the communistic principle. It may pull along on the line of being so renaming a backwood settlement. The trouble will come when the community gets sufficiently developed that the members will have a chance to acquire something worth keeping. Then the industrial ones will naturally begin to feel that they should not have to share up with the loafers. The tribal system is practicable only under the tribal condition of universal stupidity.

Evidence From Quebec.
The Quebec Legislature is to pass legislation intended to crush the drug traffic in that Province. That is rather convincing comment on the claim that the habit is increasing most rapidly in those provinces which have prohibitory liquor laws and that people who can get whiskey do not resort to "dope." Anyone who is abstemious can get all the whiskey in Quebec that he can pay for, with full sanction of the law. It is hardly to be supposed that the Quebec legislators are going to pass the new drug act without thinking that it is needed.

The Right Spirit.
The superintendent of the Government labor bureau says there is no trouble now about getting idle men to accept work. All jobs offered are promptly taken if the pay is at all reasonable. That is a turn in affairs that is altogether hopeful. If the disposition continues to prevail in a general way the much-apprehended unemployment "problem" of the winter will go far to solve itself. When people really want to work it is usually possible for this country to find enough work to go around. And the more work that is done the more there will be to do. No man can work without making work for somebody else somewhere.

Another Job Waiting.

Mr. Herbert Hoover says Germany should be made to pay every cent of the reparations claims. There isn't any doubt about that. France is unanimous in the view, and the overwhelming mass of opinion throughout the Allied world supports the contention, that how would Mr. Hoover like to take on the job of collecting the money? The Supreme Council and the Reparations Commission and the League of Nations have all tried their hands at it, and made a flat failure. They ought to be willing by this time to give Mr. Hoover or anybody else a chance, and a good flat exemption, if he can really extract anything negotiable out of Berlin.

Irresponsible Spenders.

The city council has decided that the library board, like the health board, is a law unto itself, and can spend the taxpayer's money as it pleases. Presumably that is the law as it at present stands. If so, it badly needs revision, and should get it at the coming session of the Legislature. Nobody who is out of reach of the taxpayers should have power to spend tax money. The city council and the school boards are quite all right in spending agencies if the city needs or can afford. The school boards are directly answerable to the voters. All bodies of an appointive character should be under control of the council so far as finances are concerned. There cannot otherwise be responsible government.

SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Delivered by: JESUS THE CHRIST, Anno Domini, 31.

The only solution for the turmoil, social unrest and kindred evils which torment the world today, is found in the practical application of the teachings of the Master in the "Sermon on the Mount."

Section 3—Matthew 4:14.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE HELPFULNESS.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

Section 10—Matthew 6:1-4.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE PRAYER.

And when thou prayest, say, "Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in us, as thou dost in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen."

Section 11—Matthew 6:15-18.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE CHARITY.

Therefore when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; that thou appear not unto men to be fasting, but unto thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which is in secret shall reward thee openly.

Section 12—Matthew 6:19-21.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE WISDOM.

Lay up for yourselves treasures which do not corrupt, and which do not fade away, for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Section 13—Matthew 6:22-23.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE LIGHT.

Thine eye is the lamp of the body: if thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

Section 14—Matthew 6:24-26.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE TRUST.

Take ye therefore no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on: for all these things shall be added unto you.

Section 15—Matthew 6:27-33.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE FAITH.

Therefore if ye will not leave all, ye cannot be my disciples. Whosoever will deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me, the same will save his soul.

Section 16—Matthew 6:34.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE HOPE.

Therefore shall ye not be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow shall be anxious for itself: Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Section 17—Matthew 7:1-2.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE LOVE.

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy strength, with all thy power: and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Section 18—Matthew 7:3-5.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE HUMILITY.

Why doest thou look at the mote in thine eye, and consider the beam in thine brother's eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thine brother's eye.

Section 19—Matthew 7:6-12.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE PATIENCE.

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample under their feet, and rend you.

Section 20—Matthew 7:13-14.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE COURAGE.

Enter ye in at the narrow gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: But narrow is the gate, and strait the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Section 21—Matthew 7:21-23.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE OBEDIENCE.

Not every one that saith unto me, "Lord, Lord," shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Section 22—Matthew 7:24-27.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE PERSEVERANCE.

Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which hath built his house upon a rock.

Section 23—Matthew 7:28-29.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE POWER.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these sayings, that all the people wondered at him, because of his mighty works.

Section 24—Matthew 8:1-13.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE MERCY.

And he came down from the mountain, and great multitudes followed him. And he entered into a ship, and sat down, and the multitude stood before him.

Section 25—Matthew 8:14-17.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE COMPASSION.

And he said unto them, "I will send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: therefore whosoever will, let him take upon him the cross, and follow me." And he said unto them, "Whoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whoever will lose his life for my sake, shall save it."

Section 26—Matthew 8:18-22.

THE SPIRIT OF TRUE SACRIFICE.

And he said unto them, "I will send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: therefore whosoever will, let him take upon him the cross, and follow me." And he said unto them, "Whoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whoever will lose his life for my sake, shall save it."

SMOKE HAZES SO DANGEROUS TO ROAD TRAFFIC

Autoists Warned to Be Careful By A.P.P. As Travel Is Unusual

Heavy fumes are running in the air from the burning of the smoke from the smoke stacks of the various districts in the city, which makes for poor visibility, and automobile drivers are warned by the Alberta Provincial police to be careful.

On Thursday morning, Inspector Piper, of the Edmonton detachment of the P. P., received word from Corporal Watt of Clyde, to the effect that the black smoke from the farm lands in the Clyde, Vimy and Sault districts was burning generally and that a nuisance of the smoke had road traffic was advised to proceed carefully. Corporal Watt had notified the reverend and councilors of the various districts to look for the destruction of municipal property while the government roads and the telephone systems must also be kept under observation.

The C. N. R. track at mile 31 on the Athabasca branch, is also on fire, but is being attended to by a section gang. Fires have been burning in the city since the middle of the week and very great damage has been done to the city.

Another fire, which is contributing to the haze which envelops Edmonton is located on the flat on the Pembina river. This is at a point close to Rocky Rapids, on the Saskatchewan, and a considerable area of territory is laid waste as a consequence.

Other fires are burning in the farm lands to the south of the city, which add further volumes of smoke to that which is drifting in from the north and west.

Tried for Years to Find Relief

"FRUIT-A-RIVEN" GAVE IT. Chronic constipation or irregular action of the bowels is one of the great causes of disease. Some authorities even claim that Constipation cannot be permanently corrected. This is a great mistake, because here is the proof that constipation can be cured and the bowels made to act regularly and naturally.

Farmhouse, N. S. "For years I was troubled with Constipation, and had to take laxatives and purgatives all the time. If I stopped to take them, the bowels would refuse to do their work."

"About two years ago, a friend advised me to try 'Fruit-A-Riven,' which I did. The first box helped me so much that I obtained further supplies of the remedy and continued the treatment. After using about eight boxes, my bowels were able to perform their particular function with out aid."

"The relief in my case has been lasting, as up to date I have never had any further trouble. I can recommend 'Fruit-A-Riven' to all suffering from constipation, and I am sure they will derive equal benefit."

ECCELSISTICAL LAW INVOKED TO SAVE DELORME

Montreal Justice Holds, However, That Civil Law is Supreme in Law Courts

Montreal, Oct. 19.—Efforts to halt the fight to interdict Rev. Delorme Delorme, interned in disquieting manner, after being indicted for the murder of his half brother, on the grounds that he was a priest, and could not be proceeded against, caused by the action of the Roman Catholic church authorities, failed in the superior court, before Mr. Justice Bruneau today.

Delorme pleaded the canonical law on behalf of Delorme as a priest, the petition for the appointment of a curator for the estate of Delorme, a brother-in-law of the abbe.

My Justice Bruneau ruled that ecclesiastical law could not invalidate civil proceedings. In giving the judgment, his lordship referred to the famous Tremblay-Desjardins marriage case, which was fought in every court up to the privy council, the latter ruling that the civil law was supreme over all ecclesiastical law.

Serving You and Canada

While Life Insurance stands watch over your home to cover the mortgage; to provide a fund to care for your wife and educate your children if you should die, or to support yourself in your own old age if you live—it is aiding Canada's industrial and commercial prosperity.

The trust funds formed by the payment of your premiums are invested in Government and municipal securities to build schools, roads, drains and bridges; to provide hospitals and welfare institutions; to establish justice, law and order—as well as being invested in mortgages, agriculture, transportation, industrial and other enterprises that go to develop Canada and make it a better place in which to live.

"Life Insurance serves as it waits."

Buy life insurance for the service it will render you individually, and the national service it will follow. Seek the services of the life insurance representative, and he will advise how your life's program can be carried out even in the event of your premature death.
